Professional Summary:

As an entry-level Front End Developer with expertise in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Tailwind CSS, React, and Redux, I am eager to leverage my skills to contribute to innovative web development projects. I am looking to apply my technical knowledge to impactful projects, continually enhance my skills, and progress towards a senior developer role. My goal is to deepen my expertise in front-end technologies, collaborate on cutting-edge projects, and eventually take on a leadership position, mentoring junior developers and leading development teams.
